WELCOME TO THE HARVEST CRUSADE

HOPE FOR AMERICA

A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR GREG LAURIE . . .

I'm so glad you're here with us at Utah Valley University tonight. I truly believe you're not here by accident. God has a purpose for you being here, right now, at this moment.

In today's world, so many of us are struggling to find peace and hope in the midst of chaos and uncertainty. The tragic assassination of Charlie Kirk left many of us in shock and looking for answers. But there is good news: God offers hope and purpose in life.

That's why we're calling tonight "Hope for America," because there is hope found in a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. And here's something incredible to think about: While you're sitting among thousands of people tonight, God sees you. Not just the crowd —you as an individual. He knows your story, your questions, your joys, your pains. And most of all, He loves you deeply.

You might wonder, What does God think of me? The answer is simple: He sees you through the eyes of a loving Father. He wants a relationship with you. He wants to bring you peace, forgiveness, and a new beginning. Tonight will be a powerful night of hope, healing, and revival as we discover together the life-changing message of the gospel. I'm praying this night is the beginning of something new in your life.

GOD BLESS YOU,

Pastor Greg Laurie

ALL ABOUT THE GOSPEL

WHAT IS THE GOSPEL?

The gospel is the message that we are all separated from God because of our sin. The result of this sin is an emptiness, an ever-present guilt, and a certain fear of death. Yet, because God loved us, in spite of our rebellion, He sent His own Son to die in our place and to bridge the gap between Him and us.

How can you come into a personal relationship with God?

1 REALIZE THAT YOU ARE A SINNER.

No matter how good a life we try to live, we still fall miserably short of being a good person. That is because we are all sinners. The Bible says, no one is good—not even one (see Romans 3:10). We cannot become who we are supposed to be without Jesus Christ.

2 RECOGNIZE THAT JESUS CHRIST DIED ON THE CROSS FOR YOU.

The Bible tells us that "God showed his great love for us by sending Christ to die for us while we were still sinners" (Romans 5:8 NLT). This is the Good News—that God loves us so much that He sent His only Son to die in our place when we least deserved it.

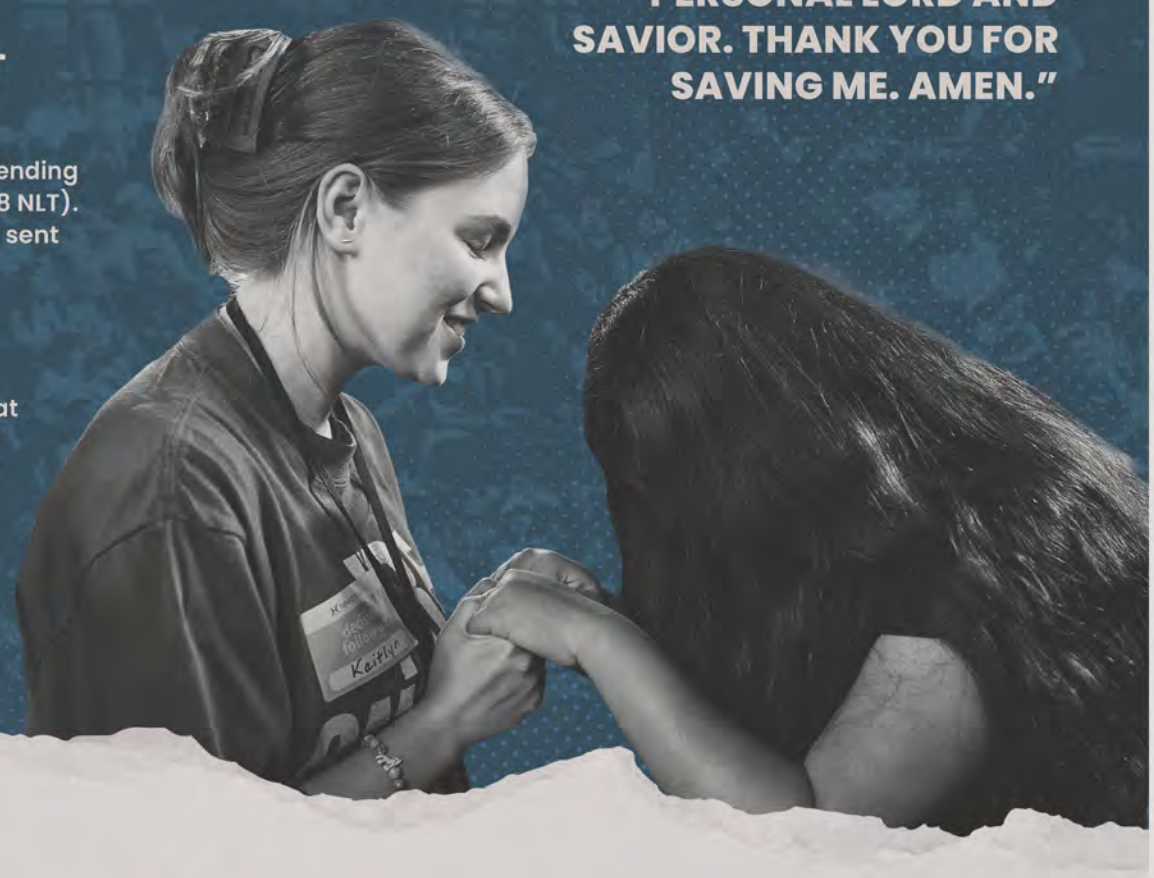

3 REPENT OF YOUR SIN.

The Bible tells us, "Repent of your sins and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped away" (Acts 3:19 NLT). The word repent means to change our direction in life. Instead of running from God, we can run toward Him.

4 RECEIVE JESUS CHRIST INTO YOUR LIFE.

Becoming a Christian is not merely believing some creed or going to church. It is having Christ Himself take residence in your life and heart. Jesus said, "Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in . . ." (Revelation 3:20 NKJV). If you would like to have a relationship with Christ, simply pray this prayer and mean it in your heart:

"DEAR LORD JESUS, I KNOW I AM A SINNER. I BELIEVE YOU DIED FOR MY SINS. RIGHT NOW, I TURN FROM MY SINS AND OPEN THE DOOR OF MY HEART AND LIFE. I CONFESS YOU AS MY PERSONAL LORD AND SAVIOR. THANK YOU FOR SAVING ME. AMEN."

THE TIME FOR REVIVAL IS NOW!

Honoring Charlie Kirk: A Life Devoted to God, Family, and Country

When I first heard about the tragic assassination of Charlie Kirk, I was in shock and deep sorrow. I had recently spoken at one of his events and was struck by his courage, clarity, and conviction. I admired him greatly, not just for his influence but for the integrity and faith he lived out behind the scenes.

Charlie didn't live a long life, he was only 31, but he lived an impactful one. As Corrie ten Boom said, "The measure of a life, after all, is not its duration, but its donation." Charlie certainly made a great donation with his life.

He founded TPUSA at only 18 and brought biblical truth and moral clarity to campuses across America. He engaged students, spoke with courage, and stood boldly for truth. He was a patriot who loved his country, but above all, Charlie was a Christian, a devoted husband, and a loving father. His faith in Jesus Christ was the foundation of everything he did.

When tragedy strikes, we often ask "Why?" But when we can't make sense of the why, we must turn to the "what" and the "who." What should we do? Who should we turn to? The answer is simple: We turn to God. The best way to honor Charlie's life is by calling people to Christ and standing for truth.

We take comfort knowing Charlie is now in Heaven. The moment he took his last breath on earth, he took his first in the presence of the Lord—safe in the arms of Jesus. That is the hope we hold as believers: eternal life through faith in Christ.

Jim Elliot, another man who gave his life for the gospel, once wrote, "I seek not a long life, but a full one, like You, Lord Jesus." Charlie lived a full life. His influence will continue to shape many for years to come.

This Is Our Turning Point

After the death of the first martyr, Stephen, the early church scattered, but God used that tragedy for good. They spread out, sharing the gospel just as Jesus commanded in Acts 1:8: "You will be my witnesses . . . to the ends of the earth" (NLT).

In the same way, I believe Charlie's death can be a turning point for the church, our nation, and you. This can be your moment to stand up and be courageous—just like Charlie.

Be Bolder for Christ

Life is short, and only what's done for Christ will last. As we remember Charlie's life, let it inspire us to be bold in our own. The Lord commands: "Be strong and of good courage . . . for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go" (Joshua 1:9 NKJV).

This could be your Jesus Revolution moment. Now is the time to move from complacency to courageous faith. Charlie once said, "I'm nothing without Jesus. . . . I want to be remembered for courage for my faith. "That's the baton he's passed to us. Will you take it?

The choice is clear: Stand bold in the face of evil or shrink back and let darkness prevail. One road leads to despair; the other, to revival. The time is now.

WHAT IS THE MOST IMPORTANT MOMENT IN A PERSON'S LIFE?

THE MOMENT A PERSON BELIEVES

That's the reason we do what we do.

As you can imagine, a Harvest Crusade requires a lot of work, money, and time from both staff and volunteers. But it's all worth it when we see men, women, and children from all walks of life all over the world choose to follow Christ. When people give their lives to Jesus, prayers are answered, lives are transformed, and eternal destinations are changed from Hell to Heaven. And you can be a part of this change!

Your support ensures this event, and so many other spiritual resources, stay free to anyone, anywhere, who is curious about Jesus. Your donation of any amount will help bring the message of salvation to hundreds of thousands—not only in Utah but with broadcasting all over the globe.

HARVEST DISCIPLESHIP

JOIN THE COMMUNITY

Are you wondering how to grow deeper in your faith journey? You've trusted in Jesus and let Him come into your heart, but following Jesus is more than a one-time decision. Being a believer is a daily walk with Him as His disciple!

Being a disciple can be hard, but you don't have to do it alone. We've created a community of people seeking to grow together in their faith, deepen their relationship with God, and become changed people for Christ! Join the movement of people who are coming together to grow spiritually and study Scripture by becoming a member of Harvest Discipleship.

Harvest Discipleship is a place where people can engage in discussions, share godly resources and wisdom, and provide spiritual support to one another. Enjoy a variety of Bible studies, courses on biblical topics, and daily discussion posts to grow your understanding of Jesus Christ among like-minded believers. Together, we can live a life more fully for Jesus and change the world for His glory.

"I am blessed to find this community that has helped me to spend more time in devotion and Bible reading and prayer with God while helping me to grow in my relationship and fellowship with God. I credit everyone in this community for making me feel welcome and giving me support and encouragement to keep growing with God each day." —Ji-Ho
